

Universal Logistics Holdings, Inc. Named a 2020 Supplier of the Year Winner by General Motors

WARREN, Mich., June 23, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Universal Logistics Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:ULH), a leading asset-light provider of customized transportation and logistics solutions, was named a GM Supplier of the Year in General Motors' 29th annual Supplier of the Year awards.

GM recognized 122 of its best suppliers from 16 countries for performance in the 2020 calendar year. The annual awards highlight global suppliers that distinguish themselves by exceeding GM's requirements, in turn providing GM customers with innovative technologies and among the highest quality in the automotive industry.

"As GM works to achieve a future with zero crashes, zero emissions and zero congestion, we are proud to have innovative and dedicated suppliers around the world as partners in this mission," said Shilpan Amin, GM vice president, Global Purchasing and Supply Chain.

"Throughout a challenging year, our suppliers have showed resilience and dedication in working toward our shared goal of long-term sustainability for our planet and the communities we serve, while meeting our present needs," Amin said. "We are pleased with what we've accomplished together in the past year and we are excited by the opportunity that lies ahead."

The 2020 Supplier of the Year winners were selected by a global team of GM purchasing, engineering, quality, manufacturing and logistics leaders. Winners were chosen based on performance criteria in Product Purchasing, Global Purchasing and Manufacturing Services, Customer Care and Aftersales, and Logistics.

"We are extremely honored to be selected by General Motors as a 2020 Supplier of the Year," said Tim Phillips, Universal Logistics Holdings, Inc. President and Chief Executive Officer. "This achievement is a testament to the Universal team's tireless efforts to provide exceptional service for our customers. The team at Universal is humbled and grateful for our collaborative partnership with General Motors."
